Auditors' Responsibility

My responsibility is to express opinions on these basic financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinions

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the respective financial position of The Hopi Foundation - KUYI 88.1 FM Radio as of December 31, 2014, and the result of operations, changes in net assets, and cash flows thereof for the year then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to be a complete presentation of The Hopi Foundation's assets, liabilities, net assets, revenues and expenses presented in the other programs of The Foundation.

Supplementary Information

My audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on The Hopi Foundation - KUYI 88.1 FM Radio's financial statements. The accompanying Schedule of Unrestricted Revenues and Functional Expenses on page 13 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of The Foundation's management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. THE HOPI FOUNDATION - KUYI 88.1 FM RADIO
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2014

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accompanying financial statements of The Hopi Foundation - KUYI 88.1 FM Radio (a nonprofit organization) have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. A summary of The Foundation's more significant accounting policies follows:

Nature of Activities - The Hopi Foundation (the Foundation) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization formed in 1985 and incorporated in the State of Arizona in 1987. The Foundation was established by local Hopi people to promote self sufficiency, proactive community participation in their own destiny, self reliance, and local self determination. The Foundation serves a population of 12,000 Hopi Indians living in 12 villages on the Hopi Reservation, other Indian tribes, and indigenous societies. The Foundation with the help of the Hopi communities, has developed and implemented an educational scholarship fund that distributes books to schools on the Hopi and other Indian reservations; retrieved and returned sacred objects to respective villages; restored several ancient clan houses; trained Ecuadorian natives to install photovoltaic systems; and revived the traditional art of rock quarrying.

In 1998, the Hopi Radio Project was also established to preserve the Hopi culture through the communication of events and ideas in the Hopi language and is located on the Hopi reservation. Hopi Radio provides a forum for diversity, self expression and creativity to ensure the respect for tradition by preserving the Hopi language and culture in a contemporary context.

These financial statements are prepared on The Hopi Foundation - KUYI 88.1 FM Radio program only, and they do not include the assets, liabilities, net assets, or the statements of activities for the other programs of The Hopi Foundation. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to be a complete presentation of The Hopi Foundation's assets, liabilities, net assets, revenues and expenses presented in the other programs of The Foundation. The following programs are part of The Hopi Foundation, but are not included in these financial statements:

The Foundation also sponsors the Owl and Panther Project, which provides a refuge through the expressive arts, creative writing, mentoring and community service. Mostly children and young adults grapple not only with their past experiences but with the challenges of living in a very different world and find ways to share their ideas with the community to help others. The Owl and Panther works with refugee children and families located in Tucson, Arizona.

Barbara Chester award program for Clinicians and Practitioners Working with Survivors of Torture was established in 1999. The award honors Dr. Barbara Chester, a clinical psychologist who helped pioneer the field of treatment for torture victims worldwide. Barbara Chester was also the founder of The Hopi Foundation's Center for the Prevention and Resolution of Violence in Tucson in 1992; The Hopi Foundation's Owl & Panther project in Tucson for refugee children and their families evolved form the Center for the Prevention and Resolution of Violence. Barbara Chester contributed to the further development of The Hopi Foundation at a critical stage of its early existence. In 1997, upon learning of her serious illness, The Hopi Foundation declared a resolution that Barbara Chester be "A member of the Hopi Foundation family now and forever." In issuing this award, The Hopi Foundation and other supporters wished to: (1) honor outstanding persons undertaking the arduous and often dangerous work of providing healing services in circumstances of torture; (2) call attention to such abuses directed against specific regions and communities; and (3) draw worldwide support for prevention of torture and associated trauma.

In 1999, the Preservation Project was established to preserve the customs and traditions for the children and the future using the architecture of the past. The project provides training of the young people in both traditional and modern practices of conservation in partnership with Utah State Parks, the National Parks Service, and the Hopi Tribe. The project remains a seasonal project and takes place at state and national parks in the state of Utah. Over the years, The Foundation has assisted several villages in the preservation of ancient clan houses and historic piiki houses and is located on the Hopi reservation. The Clan House projects helped to develop technical guides for use by community members and local agencies and remains an active publication of The Hopi Foundation.

In 2004, the Natwani Coalition Project was formed to develop innovative sustainable strategies to address diet-related health issues, preserve Hopi farming traditions, and to restore the local food system. The goals of this project are to increase the availability of fresh, sustainably grown produce to Hopi families; encourage Hopi to eat foods that promote health in themselves and their communities; encourage and support traditional sustainable farming practices; support the growth and preservation of local food production; and create local employment opportunities related to agriculture and food distribution. This project is based in Kykotsmovi, AZ and is a partnership for local farmers and seed savers.

The Hopi Substance Abuse Center was formed for the purpose of providing Substance Abuse Prevention Mentoring Services to the Hopi Community, as well as Community Outreach Programs in the area of Alcohol and Substance Abuse Prevention. The Center is in Kykotsmovi, Arizona where organized Substance Abuse Prevention meetings are held at the center three times each week and Community Outreach and Educational Presentations are conducted each month, with satellite locations across the Hopi reservation. This project is funded by a grant from the Otten's Foundation in partnership with local tribal and regional behavioral health service agencies.

The Leadership Program was started to support growth of a new generation of Hopi leaders. The community based model for balancing and enhancing traditional cultural wisdom within modern society addresses the need for leadership in local organizations. The program offers 15-months of cultural and management skill training for participants. Based on the Hopi reservation, the program offers village and environmental tours of the reservation to provide knowledge and understanding of cultural stewardship practices.

The Hopi Foundation "Hopi Opportunity Youth Initiative" (HOYI) was established to develop a community-wide strategy for creating new or strengthening existing pathways to success for youth ages 12-26. This project expects to engage local organizations including grassroots community groups, villages, nonprofit, government agencies and services, and local educational institutions to engage in research and development of strategies that support the success of Hopi and Tewa youth.

The Hopi Foundation's Capacity Building program works with local nonprofits, tribal organizations, villages, the philanthropic sector and external stakeholders to accomplish the task of resource development. The aspect of the Foundation includes development and services in the area of Local and Community-Based Research, Community Organizing & Networking, Education & Facilitation, Fund Raising & Organizational Development Training.

Basis of Accounting - The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Net assets and revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence of absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of The Foundation and changes herein are classified as follows:

Unrestricted net assets - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

THE HOPI FOUNDATION - KUYI 88.1 FM RADIO
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Temporary restricted net assets - Net assets are subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met, either by actions of The Foundation and/or the passage of time. Temporarily restricted contributions are recognized when received and when a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets that are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Permanently restricted net assets - Net assets that are subject to permanent donor-imposed restriction which stipulates that the assets are to be maintained permanently by The Foundation. Generally, the donors of these assets permit The Foundation to use all or part of the income earned on any related investments for general or specific purposes.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - Cash equivalents consist primarily of money market funds, certificates of deposits, and other highly liquid financial instruments with original maturities of 90 days or less. Certificates of deposit and the endowment fund investments with original maturities over 90 days are classified as short-term investments and stated at fair value.

Grant Receivables - Amounts due on grant unconditional promises to give are determined from actual pledges that have been made but have not been collected. Considering past experience with the pledging entities, management considers the grant receivables to fully collectible, therefore, there is no provision for doubtful accounts.

Other Receivables - Amounts due are amounts currently receivable on underwriting services provided. The amounts recorded as other receivables have been subsequently collected and The Foundation does not normally require collateral; therefore, The Foundation considers the receivable balance is fully collectible. As a result, there is no provision for doubtful accounts.

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes - The Foundation has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a not-for-profit corporation as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) of 1986 and is exempt from federal and state income taxes on related income pursuant to Sec. 501(a) of the IRC. There was no unrelated business income for 2014.

Property, Plant and Equipment - The fixed assets acquired by The Foundation are considered to be owned by The Foundation. The Foundation follows the practice of capitalizing, at cost, all expenditures for fixed assets in excess of $ 100 and at estimated fair value for donated assets. Depreciation is computed using the "straight-line" depreciation method over the estimated useful lives of the assets generally as follows:

Buildings and improvements	50 years
Furniture and Equipment	5-10 years
Vehicles	5 years

THE HOPI FOUNDATION - KUYI 88.1 FM RADIO
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Advertising - The Foundation expenses nondirect-response advertising costs as they are incurred. The total advertising expenses for the year is $269.

Revenues Recognition - The Foundation receives its grants from various foundations, organizations, and state agencies. The Foundation also receives contributions from organizations and individuals that are generally for unrestricted use. Contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recorded as made. All contributions are available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Conditional promises to give are recognized when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Unconditional promises to give due in the next year are recorded at their net realizable value. Unconditional promises to give due in subsequent years are reported at present value of their net realizable value if greater than two years, using risk-free rates applicable to the years in which the promises are to be received. Amortization of discounts on long-term unconditional promises to give are reported as increases in temporarily restricted net assets.

Grants and other contributions of cash or other assets are reported as temporarily restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor's restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and report in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Compensated Absences - Employees of The Foundation are entitled to paid vacations, sick days, and other time off depending on the job classification, length of service, and other factors. The liability for compensation for future absences is immaterial, therefore, it is the Foundation's policy to record these costs when they are paid and no liability has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements at December 31, 2014.

Functional Expenses - The cost of providing various programs and supporting services have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited based upon management estimates, the prorata percentage of payroll expenses to the total of payroll expenses by program service and specific identification.

NOTE 2 - CASH AND INVESTMENTS - CREDIT RISK

Deposits - Custodial Credit Risk Custodial credit risk is the risk that in the event of a bank failure, the Foundation's deposits may not be returned to it. The Foundation does not have a formal policy with respect to custodial credit risk. As of December 31, 2014, the carrying amount of the Radio's deposits was $91,377 and the bank balances were $107,237. At December 31, 2014, the entire bank balances were covered by Federal depository insurance.

 NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 DECEMBER 31, 2014

NOTE 5 - GRANTS RECEIVABLE - PROMISES TO GIVE

Grants receivable as of December 31, 2014 are temporarily restricted net assets (See Note 3 & 4). These unconditional promises to give are to be received by The Foundation for years subsequent to December 31, 2014, and are deemed by management to be fully collectible are as follows:

Receivable in one year	$ 144,004
Total unconditional promises to give at December 31, 2014	$ 144,004

NOTE 6 - FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS - FAIR VALUE

The Foundation's financial instruments include cash, cash equivalents, accounts and grants receivable, and notes payable. The Foundation estimates that the fair value of all financial instruments at December 31, 2014, does not differ materially from the aggregate carrying values of its financial instruments recorded in the accompanying statement of financial position.

The estimated fair value amounts have been determined using available market information and appropriate valuation methodologies. The carrying amounts of cash, cash equivalents, investment in an endowment fund, and grants receivable, reported in the statement of financial position approximate fair values because of the short maturities of those instruments.

NOTE 7 - PROPERTY, PLANT, AND EQUIPMENT

A summary of the changes in fixed assets follows.

	Cost	Accumulated Depreciation	Net Book Value
Modular Building and Shed	$ 61,825	$ 43,018	$ 18,807

THE HOPI FOUNDATION - KUYI 88.1 FM RADIO
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2014

NOTE 8 - RETIREMENT PLAN - 401(k) PLAN

Effective September 1, 2008, The Foundation entered into an agreement with a retirement services organization to service a 401(k) retirement plan for eligible employees.

Employees are eligible to participate in the plan if they are 21 years of age and have completed 12 months of service with The Foundation. However, as of the plan effective date the eligibility requirements were waived and all employees, including part-time, became eligible. Newly hired employees can enter the plan the first day of the following month after they have become eligible. All elective deferrals made by the employee are 100% vested at all times. Employees may defer from 1-100% of their compensation

The Company's matching contributions are 100% match on deferral up to the first 3% of compensation plus 50% match on deferrals that exceed 3% compensation but do not exceed 5% of compensation. The Foundation made contributions for the Radio Program in the amount of $1,442 to the 401(k) retirement plan for the year ended December 31, 2014.

NOTE 9 - TAX DISCLOSURES

The Foundation has elected to defer the adoption of the accounting pronouncement FIN 48, requiring disclosures of more-likely-than-not recognition of income taxes if the IRS challenged its tax positions. This relates to the possibility that after an evaluation of The Foundation's 990 tax form that the IRS may challenge The Foundation's tax position for unrelated business income that could be considered taxable income. Due to the current changes in the 990 forms and the IRS position to closely review the tax positions taken, it is uncertain that a tax audit would occur within the next 12 months that would cause a change in the amount of income taxes due. An estimate of the range of possible income taxes due cannot be reasonably made.

NOTE 10 - DUE TO/FROM HOPI FOUNDATION PROGRAM

During the 2010 year, a loan payable of $52,392 was recorded as an amount due to The Hopi Foundation Program. The year end balance was determined as follows:

Loan Balance recorded 2/2/10	$ 52,392.00
Loan payment made 4/15/10	(11,683.15)
Additional payment made 4/15/10	(1,000.00)
Loan payment made 11/10/12	(2,000.00)
Loan payment made 4/30/13	(1,000.00)
Balance at December 31, 2014	$ 36,708.85

The remaining balance is to be made at $1,000 per year plus underwriting and trade spots at equal value until paid off.
